

Venue

Versatile and dynamic, the National Museum of Australia in Canberra makes an ideal setting for themed dinners, product launches, gala balls, lakeside dining and cocktail functions. Other features include unrivalled technical capabilities, private viewings of the galleries and special exhibition openings, before during or after an event.

The Hall

For a venue with a difference, the Museum's Hall is a grand and elegant venue for large corporate and private evening functions. With spectacular views over Lake Burley Griffin and the city, the Hall has the capacity for up to 1,000 guests for cocktail functions or 600 guests for seated functions. A special bonus for function organisers is the Hall's large projection screen which can receive tele-visual feeds from a location of your choice.

Visions Theatre

A luxurious 177-seat theatre with large screen playback facilities.

Peninsula Room

The ideal venue for a business function, featuring spectacular views over Lake Burley Griffin and Parliament House. It can hold 350 guests for cocktails or can be divided into three smaller rooms and has access to its own private deck.

Garden of Australian Dreams

A unique and magical space in the centre of the Museum. It is an enclosed outdoor area suitable for a dinner or a cocktail party for up to 750 people.

Amphitheatre

The outdoor amphitheatre seats 1600 and is situated right on the shores of Lake Burley Griffin.

Technical

Multimedia facilities include:

- broadcast-quality fibre optics allowing broadcast to anywhere in the world
- built-in high quality Optawave screen (4mx3m)
- video conferencing facilities
- hearing loop facilities.
